HCMHC Application Process

An application is submitted by the attorney of record to the HCMHC Program Navigator

The Program Navigator sends the applicant's information to the legal team, consisting of an Assistant District Attorney (ADA) and Assistant Public Defender (PD), as well as a representitive from TDOC Probation

If the individual passes the legal eligibility process, the Program Navigator schedules and conducts a clinical assessment

If the legal team denies the case, a denial letter is sent to the attorney of record

If the applicant meets clinical criteria, an acceptance letter will be sent to the attorney of record and a plea date will be scheduled with the Program Navigator

If the individual does not meet clinical criteria, a denial letter is sent to the attorney of record
