

Service Recipient Equal Opportunity Notification Form

The Civil Rights Act of 1964 was passed to ensure the people of the United States equal treatment, rights and opportunities regardless of race, color, or national origin. Title VI of that Act prohibits discrimination in federally funded programs.

"No person in the United States shall, on the basis of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be dined the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance." Included under National Origin is discrimination based on a person's inability to speak, read, write, or understand English. Persons whose primary language is no English can be Limited English Proficient or "LEP". These individuals may be entitled to language assistance with respect to a particular type of service, benefit, or encounter.

All programs and operations of entities that receive assistance from the federal government must comply.

It is important that all applicants and recipients of services know about their rights under the law, and that employees of the Hamilton County Mental Health Court, as well as other agencies, organizations, institutions, and contractors providing services with sates support understand what the law requires.
